- 2.03 SPECIAL MEETING. Special meetings of the members, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute may be called by the President or the BOARD or by the person designated in the written request of not less than ten percent of the number of members of the Corporation entitled to vote at the meeting.

- 2.06 FIXING of RECORD DATE. For the purpose of determining members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of members or any adjournment thereof, or in order to make a determination of members for any other proper purpose, the BOARD may fix in advance a date as the record date for the determination of members, such date to be not more than 60 days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of members, is to be taken. If no record date is fixed for the determination of members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of members, the close of business on the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed, shall be the record date for such determination of members.

- 2.07 VOTING RECORD. The officer or agent having charge of the membership record books shall, before each meeting of members, prepare a list of the members of record as determined in Section 2.06 entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, with the address of each. Such record shall be available for inspection by any member during a meeting for the purposes of the meeting, and shall be prima facie evidence as to the members entitled to examine membership records or to vote at any meeting of members. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.
- ~~2.08~~ QUORUM. Except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, one tenth of the number of members entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the members represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the members unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws.

The BOARD shall have the power and authority to make rules establishing presumptions as to the validity and sufficiency of proxies.
- 2.11 VOTING. Each member shall be entitled to one vote upon each matter submitted to a vote of members, except to the extent that the voting rights of members are enlarged, limited or denied by the Articles of Incorporation. Honorary Members have no voting rights.

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any member under the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or any provision of law, a waiver thereof in writing, signed at any time, whether before or after the time of meeting, by the member entitled to such notice shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance at any meeting shall constitute waiver of notice thereof unless the member objects to the holding of the meeting because proper notice was not given.
- 2.13 INFORMAL ACTION of MEMBERS WITHOUT MEETING. Any action to be taken at any annual or special meeting of the members entitled to vote, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the members entitled to vote, may be taken without a meeting and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed either: (1) by all of the members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, or (2) by members having not less than a minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all members entitled to vote thereon were present and voting.

If the consent is signed by less than all of the members entitled to vote, then such consent shall become effective only: (1) if at least 5 days prior to the effective date of such consent, a notice in writing of the proposed action is delivered to all of the members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, and (2) if, after the effective date of such consent, prompt notice in writing of the taking of corporate action without a meeting is delivered to those members entitled to vote who have not consented in writing. In the event the action consented to would require the filing of a certificate under law if such action had been voted on by the members at a meeting thereof, the certificate filed shall state, in lieu of any statement required concerning any vote of members, that written consent has been given in accordance with the provisions of this Section and that written notice has been delivered as provided in this Section.

- 2.14 VOTE by MAIL BALLOT. In lieu of a membership meeting, the BOARD may present any matter to the membership for determination by direct mail vote. In any such case, ballots shall be received not less than 20 days nor more than 60 days prior to the date on which ballots are required to be returned. Whenever any notice whatever is required to be given to any Director of the Corporation under the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws or any provision of law, a waiver thereof in writing, signed at any time, whether before or after the time of meeting, by the Director entitled to such notice shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.
- 9.02 INTERESTED PERSON. Any director, officer, or member of a committee with BOARD-delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.
- 9.03 FINANCIAL INTEREST. A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:
- A. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement;
 - B. A compensation arrangement with the Corporation or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement; or
 - C. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.
- Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial. A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Section 5 below, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the BOARD or appropriate committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.
- 9.04 DUTY TO DISCLOSE. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with BOARD-delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

- 9.05 DETERMINING WHETHER A CONFLICT OF INTEREST EXISTS. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he or she shall leave the BOARD or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.
- 9.06 PROCEDURES FOR ADDRESSING THE CONFLICT OF INTEREST.
- A. An interested person may make a presentation at the BOARD or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
 - B. The President or the chair of a committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
 - C. After exercising due diligence, the BOARD or committee shall determine whether the Corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
 - D. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the BOARD or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.
- 9.07 VIOLATIONS OF THE CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY.
- A. If the BOARD or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
 - B. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the BOARD or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
- 9.08 RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS. The minutes of the BOARD and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:
- A. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the Board of Director's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
 - B. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.
- 9.09 COMPENSATION.
- A. A voting member of the BOARD who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
 - B. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

- C. No voting member of the BOARD or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.
- 9.10 ANNUAL STATEMENTS. Each director, officer and member of a committee with BOARD-delegated powers shall annually sign a statement (or confirm their agreement by email) which affirms such person:
- A. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,
 - B. Has read and understands the policy,
 - C. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
 - D. Understands the Corporation is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.
- 9.11 PERIODIC REVIEWS. To ensure the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:
- A. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information and the result of arm's length bargaining.
 - B. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.
- 9.12 USE OF OUTSIDE EXPERTS. When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Section 9.11 above, the organization may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the Corporation of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.
